Re: Objection to Subaru settlement

I am writing to object to the settlement in Keith Yaeger, et al. v. Subaru of America, Inc., et. al., case no. 1:14-cv-04490. I have not objected to any other class action settlements in any court in the United States. I do not plan to attend the Fairness Hearing.

My wife and I purchased a 2012 Subaru Forester (V.I.N. JF2SHADC1DH422542) new with 18 miles on it on November 12, 2012 from Reedman Toll. On that day we also purchased an extended service contract good for 7 years or 100,000 miles. We opted for the Gold Plus Service contract at a cost to us of $1,395.00 plus tax for a total of $1,478.70.

The offer made by Subaru of America to provide engine coverage to 100,000 miles or 8 years is not an offer beneficial to us because we already paid for this. Subaru needs to reimburse those who purchased an extended service contract for that cost as well.

Additionally, I do not see an offer to pay owners for the accelerated depreciation of their vehicles. Most certainly, when we go to purchase another vehicle and trade ours in, the value of our car will be reduced because of the faulty, defective and unreliable engine. This information will show up on Carfax, for instance, so prospective buyers will become aware of the defect in our Subaru.

We request full reimbursement of the extended plan we purchased plus $5000. in loss of value to our trade-in for a total of $6478.70. We believe that the settlement for anyone who has already purchased an extended warrantee should include reimbursement of that cost plus additional depreciation.

Given the reputation of Subaru, we look forward to a more acceptable settlement for all parties concerned.

Sincerely,

Wesley J. Lane
